

THE FRIENDS OF APHRODISIAS TRUST

A VISIT TO THE COLLECTION OF PETER AND RENATE NAHUM

5 BLOOMSBURY SQUARE, LONDON WC1

TUESDAY 25 FEBRUARY 2014

Peter and Renate Nahum, owners of the Leicester Galleries in Ryder Street for many years, have generously offered to take a small party of Friends round their important art collection, now installed in their fine Georgian house at 5 Bloomsbury Square.

Peter Nahum is a specialist on 19th and 20th century art; he has been a regular expert on the BBC's Antiques Roadshow. The collection of paintings, drawings and sculpture reflects its owners' expertise but actually ranges from the prehistoric to 2013.

We meet at 4pm on 25 February at 5 Bloomsbury Square – entrance on Bloomsbury Way opposite Swedenborg House. (East bound no. 19 and no. 38 buses stop on Bloomsbury Square, a minute's walk from the front door. The nearest Underground Station is Holborn. There are a few Pay and Display parking meters in the square and there is the Bloomsbury Public Car Park beneath the square itself.) The visit will start with a cup of tea and last approximately an hour and a half. All five floors of the house can be reached by lift.

Please let me know as soon as possible (numbers limited – first come, first served) if you would like to join the party. I should be grateful for donations, £20 per person suggested, as contributions towards the Friends' 2014 conservation project, undertaken by Trevor Proudfoot in the Hadrianic Baths at Aphrodisias.
